

Frank Sinatra

MUSICIAN OF THE HALF TERM

Frank Sinatra

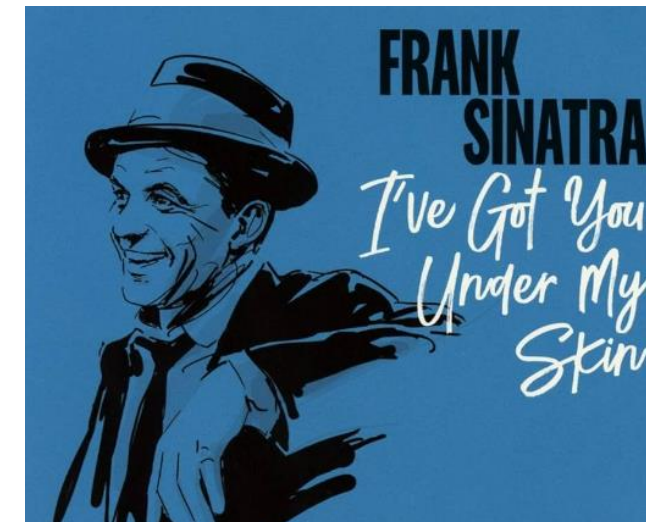

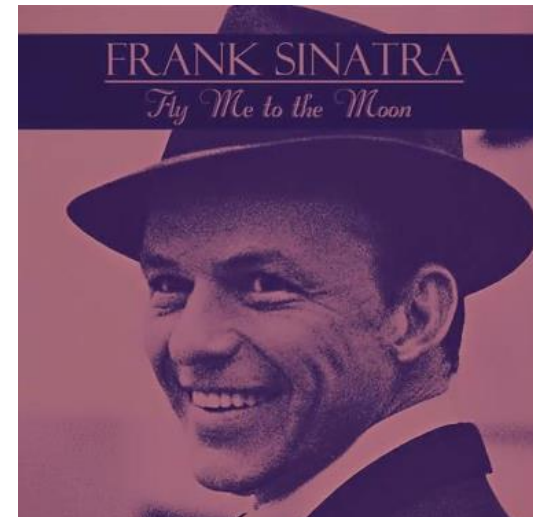

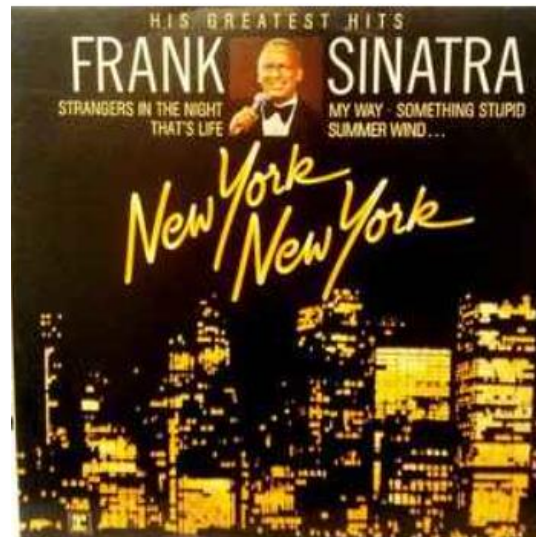

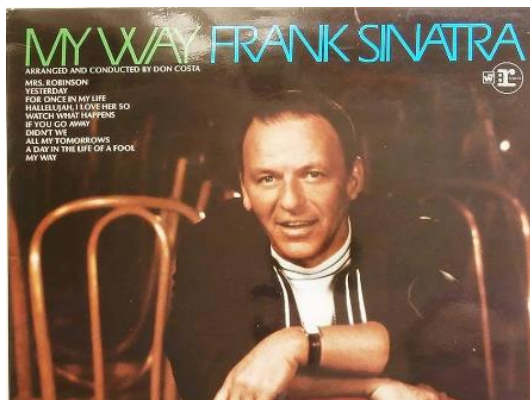

Sinatra was one of the most popular entertainers of the 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s. He is among the world's best-selling music artists with an estimated 150 million record sales. He was a swing singer.

He was a singer and an actor and won awards.

He was known for being a very good singer and performer and he recorded his songs live with his band.

Click the pictures to listen to some of his songs.

Frank Sinatra

During World War II, Frank Sinatra entertained the soldiers.

He released various Christmas songs that people still listen to today.

